*Please change your passwords before course registration to ensure the security of the process.

Additionally, to maintain the rights and fairness of course selection for students, all course selections at our school must be done through the "Online Course Registration System." If any student is found to be using improper programs for course selection or violating the fairness of the process, upon verification, the Office of Academic Affairs will directly cancel their course registration and refer the case to the Office of Student Affairs for disciplinary action, in order to protect the rights of other students.

Notice :

- The courses can be enrolled either by Web access. Curriculum Online System:
<https://www.ais.tku.edu.tw/elecos/>
 *The table of your current class schedule is displayed for viewing on EMIS at <http://sinfo.ais.tku.edu.tw/emis> after your selection in real time. (This site always facilitates students to access to the most immediate, latest information).
- The maximum of General Education and Core Courses selection are 3 courses. Each General Education and Core Courses is limited to select one course. General core curriculum during the initial selection is limited to one field (including voluntary selection and classes already having screen). In the add/drop period of the first phase, you can select the 2nd class. In the second phase, a third class can be selected. An additional five spots will be added to each class during the first stage of add/drop, giving priority to current graduates for online course selection.
- Students can overtake 6 credits only if:
 - Graduate students attend Programs with approval.
 - Undergraduates' average grades are beyond 80 (a grade A) in the previous semester or you have been approved for Minor, Double Major, or Program. In order to take 6 more credits by Web access, you must meet one of the criteria.
 - For Graduating seniors want to overtake credits or graduate students enrolling in undergraduate curriculum, Please pay attention to the website of the Office Academic Affairs.
- Credits in All-out defense education military training(II), credits in PE and credits in English Tutorial do not count as regular graduation credits. PE elective courses cannot be used to fulfill required PE credits.
- For students in English-taught programs of departments, graduate institutes, and degree program(groups), as well as those admitted through English proficiency tests, courses not taught in English will not be counted toward their graduation credits. If a master's student takes a undergraduate course, the associated credits will not be counted toward their master's degree.

6. General Education Curriculum required credits:

- 6.1. The "General Education Curriculum Framework" applicable to new students in each academic year can be found in detail on the General and Core Curriculum Center's website
<https://www.core.tku.edu.tw/Front/class/class1/Page.aspx?id=zMPpvkI63H4=&lang=en>
- 6.2. "AI and Programming Languages" for the 114th academic year has been renamed to "Introduction to Artificial Intelligence." For students who enrolled in the 113th academic year (inclusive) and earlier, please refer to the General Education and Core Curriculum Center website for details on the course retake and substitution plan for "AI and Programming Languages." Website: <https://reurl.cc/yL0z18>
- 6.3. The online course " Learning in University " will be offered in the 1st and 2nd semesters of the 115th academic year, providing an opportunity for students who need to retake or make up courses. Please register for the course online by yourself.

7. The 8 credits in the Field Q (foreign language) of the General Education Curriculum:

- 7.1. The 8-credit Field Q (foreign language) requirement comprises 4 credits of required English (I) in the freshman year, and the other 4 credits of required English (II) in the sophomore year. Students who choose not to take English (II) may instead take alternative foreign languages opened under the Field Q. For students taking English (II) or any other foreign language, the same language must be studied across both the fall and spring semesters to receive credit. For further details, please refer to the English Department website.
- 7.2. Students enrolling in Spanish (I), French (I), or Japanese (I) must choose one flexible instructional session to go with their main class. Please first confirm your main class time, then select one available session from the 2 to 3 flexible options that fits your schedule.

8. English (I):

- 8.1. For the class levels, please see the add/drop procedure announced on the English Department website.
- 8.2. Freshmen have been pre-assigned to their English (I) classes and cannot change sections.
- 8.3. Retaking students, students making up credits, and newly admitted transfer students must register for courses during the adjustment (add/drop) periods. If a preferred section is full, please choose an alternative.

9. English (II):

- 9.1. Starting in the Fall 2026 semester, English (II) will be transitioned to a theme-based format. Various sections will feature different themes, allowing students to select sections based on their interests, including cross-college enrollment. Students are also permitted to choose different themes for the first and second semesters. Please note that the initial course selection period is restricted to sophomores only. Retaking students, students making up credits, and newly admitted transfer students must register for courses during the adjustment (add/drop) period. If a preferred section is full, please choose an alternative.
- 9.2. Sophomores in English-taught departments (or programs) have been pre-assigned to their English (II) classes and cannot change sections.
- 9.3. For further information regarding the English (II) course selection, please see the add/drop procedure announced on the English Department website.

10. English Tutorial:

- 10.1. Eligibility: Only open to undergraduate students (graduation verification of academic year: 2023/112 and earlier) who have not passed the English proficiency requirement for graduation. For more details, please refer to the English Department website.
- 10.2. Note for Freshmen: Freshmen admitted in or after the 2024 (113) academic year are exempt from the English proficiency requirement for graduation and do not need to take English Tutorial as a substitute course.

11. The P.E. class which is instructed in all English is initially restricted to students in the all-English bachelor's programs during the initial selection. Students not in these programs who wish to take these courses should register online during the add/drop period.

12. Students intending to take Campus and Community Service-Learning, please take your student ID card and enroll at Military Training Dept during the first week of the semester.
13. Petitions: Please refer to the webpage of the Center for Registration-Curriculum Development for more details.
14. Please choose your classes carefully. A Student withdrawal from a Class after the Midterm Exam will be listed on the academic record hereafter with a note of "dropped" for that semester. (Adjustment Period : Mon., 7th Dec. 2026 to Fri., 11th Dec. 2026. At that time, please go online and withdraw from your classes according to the announcement time.)
